
Rotary President On Truro Visit

TRURO, July 28—President of Rotary International, Arthur Legueux visited in Truro today, and tonight at a special meeting, addressed a joint session of Rotarians from Truro, Pictou, New Glasgow, Westville and Antigonish.

President Lagueux, in a stirring address, urged the members of that organization to harness the power of its idealism so that its missions might be successfully carried out.

Accompanying Mr. Lagueux to Truro were E. K. Ford, Halifax, district governor, and Dr. H. W. McKiel, Sackville, past district governor and past international vice-president.

Following the meeting the visitors, wives, and friends were entertained at a dinner in the rooms of the Truro Golf Club.
