

Rotary Register Opens at Chamber

The Brawley chamber of commerce announced today its office in the Plaza would be open tomorrow to register out of town Rotarians who will be coming here for the visit Monday of Arthur Lagueux, Rotary international president.

Secretary-Manager Dwight Park will man the office with the assistance of three directors who have volunteered for three-hour stint—Mrs. Vera Ballantyne, Alden Chatwin, and D. E. Webb. The office will be open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Lagueux, of Quebec City, Canada, will visit Brawley and make an address at Palmer auditorium, 8 p.m. Monday after a program in the Plaza.
