

ROTARY CHIEF — Arthur Lagueux, president of Rotary International, to be honored at dinner Tuesday.

Dinner to Honor International Rotary Chief

Arthur Lagueux, president of Rotary International, will be honored Tuesday evening at a dinner in the Biltmore, District Governor Edd Norwood announced yesterday.

Lagueux and his wife will come here on their world tour, designed to stimulate Rotary activities in the promotion of international goodwill.

A resident of Quebec, Lagueux heads an organization of 7309 Rotary Clubs with a membership of 343,000 Rotarians in 84 countries. While here, the Lagueux's will be guests of 4570 Rotarians of District 160, which includes the Los Angeles metropolitan area.
